Incwadi Yesibalo Ezingcwele : e Zetestamente Endala ne Zetestamemnte Entsha : ziguqulwe kwezontelo zanikwa kuqala ngazo / Appleyard, John Whittle, 1814-1874 ; Hunter, W. ; British and Foreign Bible Society.-- 1044p ; 18cm.-- E-Oxford, Kwelamangesi : Ishichelwe Nge-University Press, 1902
Notes: 'Appleyard's version' - T.p verso. -- Corrected reprint of the 1864 Bible. -- Cover and spine title: Izibalo Ezingcwele.-- In 1896 the South African Wesleyan Missionary Conference requested the BFBS to reprint Appleyard's Version, on the grounds that the revised version was not acceptable to the nationals in the east. This application was renewed a little later, it being alleged that the version of 1888-9 (Coldham, 3390) represented the Gaika dialect, and contained words and phrases which were distasteful to the Fingoes, Tembus and Pondos. The BFBS therefore decided to reprint 10,000 copies of the Bible of 1864 (Coldham, 3375 and 3, 000 copies of the N.T. after obvious errors had been corrected, and the orthography revised, by W. Hunter. Both editions appeared in 1902.-- With occasional footnotes, text in double column format

Anecdota Oxoniensia

Notes: "John Bale's autograph notebook, preserved among Selden's manuscripts in the Bodleian library ... A carefully planned catalogue ... differing from Bale's published Catalogues [Illustrium maioris Britanniae scriptorum summariam [1548] and Scriptorum illustrium maioris Brytannie Catalogus 1557-1559] ... First, it is arranged alphabetically, not chronologically. Secondly, by far the greater number of the articles are followed by a reference to the authority or source from which their matter is derived ... This notebook ... bears no title ... I have adopted the title Index Britanniae scriptorum."--Pref Notes: "A series of drawings representing scenes or 'pagents' in the life of the earl ... As to the origin of the manuscript ... there has been a persistent tradition that its author was John Rous ... there is very little to connect it with Rous, and ... while we may hesitate to accept him as the author even of the text, we have no hesitation whatever in pronouncing the drawings not to be his handiwork at all."--Intro. -- Available in other

The English factories in India, 1630-1633 : a calendar of documents in the India office, Bombay record office, etc / edited by William Foster ... Published under the patronage of His Majesty's secretary of state for India in council.-- 13v., xxxix, [1], 354 p : front. (ports) maps ; 23 cm.-- Oxford : Clarendon Press

Vol. 4

Notes: "The present instalment contains about 320 documents, of which three-fourths belong to the India office collections, five come from the Public record office, and one from the British museum. For the first time we are able to include documents from an Indian record office, for the Surat factory Outward letter book (vol.1)--the oldest volume of English records now extant in that country--contributes about seventy entries. Five of the letters in that volume were published ... by Mr. G. W. Forrest ... in his selections from the letters, etc., preserved in the Bombay secretariat : Home series, vol. 1; but the rest are new to students. The documents taken from the o.c. ('original correspondence') series at the India office, as also those from the 'East Indies' series at the Public record office, have been already calendared in Mr. W. Noel Sainsbury's volume for 1630-4; but they are here abstracted afresh on a different system, in which verbatim quotation is freely used."--Pref

Notes: "As long ago as 1905 Sir Walter Raleigh sketched the first plan of this book, and in 1909 Sir Sidney Lee undertook its production. He arranged for the writing of most of the treatises now published, set on foot the first selection of the illustrations ... and made additions from his own collections and from fresh researches. In 1911 he was obliged to postpone work upon the book ... Successive editors who took up the task were withdrawn by war work in the course of 1914-15" The Clarendon press has employed Charles Talbut Onions for the completion of the work. cf.

La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei : the Life of St. Edward the confessor, reproduced in fascimile from the unique manuscript (Cambridge university library Ee.3.59) together with some pages of the manuscript of the life of St. Alban at Trinity College, Dublin / Aelred, of Rievaulx, Saint, 1110-1167 ; Alban, Saint ; Edward, King of England, ca. 1003-1066 ; James, M. R. (Montague Rhodes), 1862-1936 ; Paris, Matthew, 1200-1259 ; Cambridge University Library ; Roxburgh Club.-- 74, [1] p., facsim.: 1 p. l., 65 p., 10 l : illus ; 31 cm.-- Oxford : Printed at the University press by F. Hall, 1920
Notes: Sir Edward Maundi Thompson's copy (name in red in list of members of Roxburgh club).-- "The illustrations are, of course, the point of principal interest ... " the text, "a French versification of the Latin prose life of St. Edward by Alibred of Rievaulx," which was little more than an abridgment and paraphrase of the life by Osbert of Clare, was printed in full by Dr. Luard in 1858 in the Rolls series of Chronicles and memorials, with a literal translation. The present editor believes the manuscript to be the "work of Matthew Paris, carried out at St. Alban's Abbey under his supervision, not by his own hand." cf. Pref

The Glass Palace chronicle of the kings of Burma / translated by Pe Maung Tin and G. H. Luce.-- xxiii, 179 p : map ; 23 cm.-- Oxford University Press
  : London ; London : H. Milford, 1923 Notes: "In the year 1829 King Bagyidaw of Burma appointed a committee of scholars to write a chronicle of the Burmese kings. The name of the chronicle was taken from the Palace of glass, in... which the compilation was made... The present translation is based on the Mandalay edition of 1907.
  It begins with the third part... [which] opens with history of the three Burmese kingdoms of Tagaung, Tharehkittara, and Pagan. The fourth and fifth parts continue the history of Pagan until the time of its fall.".-- "Issued Notes: "In 1922 the question of phonetic transcription and of transliteration was brought before the meeting of the Union académique internationale in Brussels by Jespersen and Salverda de Grave ... At the meeting in May 1924 it was ... agreed that it would be a good thing if a not too numerous body of competent scholars, representing as many different groups of languages as possible, could meet together personally and discuss the problems ... The meetings were held in the University of Copenhagen from the 20th till the 25th of April 1925." -- List of members on p. 5. -- On verso of t.-p.: Sections 1-28 have been drawn up by Otto Jespersen; section 29 by Holger Pedersen

Notes: "As long ago as 1905 Sir Walter Raleigh sketched the first plan of this book, and in 1909 Sir Sidney Lee undertook its production. He arranged for the writing of most of the treatises now published, set on foot the first selection of the illustrations ... and made additions from his own collections and from fresh researches. In 1911 he was obliged to postpone work upon the book ... Successive editors who took up the task were withdrawn by war work in the course of 1914-15."
