David Willcocks

A Celebration in Carols

for SATB accompanied & unaccompanied

This collection marks the 95th birthday of one of the most acclaimed editors and arrangers of our time. A survey of his work, it brings together many of Willcocks’s best-loved carol arrangements and original compositions, and, as an affectionate birthday tribute, includes specially-commissioned new carols by John Rutter, Bob Chilcott, and Jonathan Willcocks.

Wenceslas

for mezzo-soprano and baritone soloists, SATB chorus, and piano or orchestra

In new words by Charles Bennett, the story of Good King Wenceslas on the Feast of Stephen is presented as a vivid musical narrative. The well-known carol is interwoven throughout the work, and the movements are punctuated by an instrumental interlude and triumphant fanfare.

The Anniversary Edition celebrates John Rutter’s 70th birthday and features mainly his earlier pieces. The series provides the most comprehensive and authoritative performance materials (including full scores and parts) for over 30 of the composer’s favourite anthems, carols, and songs. There are accompanying notes on both the music and performance, written by John Rutter.

Look out for two new CDs from John Rutter:

A Double Celebration – is a 2-CD release featuring 30 years of recordings by the Cambridge Singers and marking the forthcoming 70th birthday of John Rutter.

The John Rutter Songbook – is a 2-CD compilation of 40 pieces composed or arranged by John Rutter with one disc dedicated to Christmas carols and the other to his secular and sacred works.
